

Middletown Valley Bank Sees Continued Growth

7/19/2019 – Middletown Valley Bank (MVB) is proud to announce that 2019 is proving to be another year of growth. After opening two new Hagerstown locations earlier in the year, a multitude of new opportunities include greater availability for our customers and the creation of new jobs and increased professional development for our existing employees.

“The continued growth and focus on our markets provides opportunity both internally and externally. It is our dedicated team that provides the Absolutely Exceptional Experience, and leads the way every day for our customers and communities. I am very pleased that Middletown Valley Bank is able to provide growth and opportunity to this dedicated team.

-BJ Goetz, President & CEO

Ryan Lampton, with more than 12 years of local banking experience, most recently leading our Retail and Commercial Operations, has been named Executive Vice President – Chief Revenue Officer.

Other members of our team dedicated to servicing our customers who received new officer designations included:

- Sam Buhrman, Assistant Vice President, Commercial Relationship Manager
- Renai Foltz, Vice President, Residential Mortgage Banker
- Susan Grove, Vice President, Client Relationship Manager
- Shane Heizer, Banking Officer, Business Banker
- Ben Rodriguez, Banking Officer, Portfolio Manager
- Dawn Scofield, Banking Officer, Cash Management Specialist
- Amy Seiders, Banking Officer, Residential Mortgage Banker

“It is always exciting to see growth from within. Our goal is to ensure our employees know we recognize the value they bring to the organization. Their hard-work and dedication is what allows us to provide the Absolutely Exceptional Experience to our communities’, and we can’t thank them enough for all they do.”

-Dawn Lowe, Senior Vice President – Director of Human Resources
